Seaway Splash 2017 – Featuring Ultimate Air Dogs, Returning To Clayton

For Immediate Release

Clayton, New York (April 27, 2017) - The Clayton Chamber of Commerce has announced the return of Seaway Splash, presented by Paw Street Barkery. The event will take place June 16-18, 2017, in Frink Park, on Riverside Drive.

“Seaway Splash has been one of the most popular family events held in downtown Clayton” stated Christopher Bogenschutz, Clayton Chamber of Commerce President. We are also excited Paw Street Barkery has signed on as the “Top Dog” sponsor giving us the opportunity to bring this event back to our community.”

Seaway Splash has seen dogs from across the state, as well as Vermont, New Hampshire, Ontario and Quebec take part in the competition since its inception.

The event quality and concept will remain as 2016. Participation costs will be lower in an effort to encourage more locals and non-competitors to try their dogs at the sport of dock diving. It is sure to be just as fun and entertaining. Ultimate Air Dogs is widely known and has been featured on The Late Show with David Letterman. The competition will feature categories similar to those held in Clayton in the past.

Seaway Splash made its biggest ‘splash’ during the inaugural event in 2012 when Taz, a then 5-year old black Labrador, leaped 31-feet during the competition. That jump set a new world record for the sport and landed the event and Clayton in the Guinness Book of World Records.

Sponsorship opportunities are now available and businesses can contact Tricia Bannister, Clayton Chamber Executive Director, at 315-686-3771 or tricia@1000islands-clayton.com.

Event registration information will be announced at a later date.
